Boaters for TRUMP!

A sight replicated across America Saturday, September 5, was the TRUMP Boat Parade, seen above on the Piankatank River in Middlesex County. Witnesses counted 158 watercraft that participated—power boats, sailboats, jet skis, kayaks—all showing support for America and President Donald Trump by displaying flags, banners, big smiles and lots of enthusiasm. Especially encouraging to see were significant numbers of young people, many with small children on board. People along the route on shore showed appreciation and support by waving flags, banners and their hands.

Those of us on boats find these parades exhilarating, inspirational, and uplifting. At a time when there is so much negativity exhibited in our country, these events give proud

Americans a much-needed break and help reinforce that others believe as we do: President Trump is doing an outstanding job and deserves four more years to continue his efforts to Make America Great Again!

Another TRUMP boat parade will be Saturday, September 26, gathering at the mouth of Urbanna Creek at 1:00 p.m. and crossing the Rappahannock River into Carters Creek. Rain date will be September 27. Boaters who participate are asked to monitor VHF Channel 67.

At least one boat on the 26th is expected to carry a GADE for SENATE banner as Daniel Gade's Campaign Manager, Loren Hubbard, plans to be part of this tribute to America and our President.

Might there be a TRUMP road rally in this area happening soon?

GADE for SENATE campaign was in Gloucester, August 29. A crowd over 100 gathered at the Disabled American Veterans' headquarters to meet Dr. Daniel Gade and hear firsthand why he's working to win the seat in the United States Senate occupied by Mark Warner. No one in the audience could have come away from Gade's presentation believing he is anything but a superior candidate who fully grasps what is happening in America and understands what needs to happen to save it from destruction. More: he's eager to be given the chance to do it!

Middlesex County Republican Committee's presence at the campaign event included a table offering TRUMP and GOP items for sale. Lots of buyers were attracted, including Candidate Gade who was intrigued by the patriotic socks—

"I love unusual socks!" he exclaimed.

Dr. Dan Gade and Patti Taylor

Staffing MCRC's table were Patti Taylor and Vickie Simmons. Trudy Feigum, invited to give comments to the audience, expressed her enthusiastic support for Daniel Gade and told the audience of the honor she'd been given by the First Congressional District of Virginia to cast votes as National Delegate via proxy to nominate President Donald Trump and Vice President Pence for re-election.

Rounding out the afternoon was the opportunity to welcome two new members to MCRC, Keith and Sheryl Jordan of Wake.

Wittman Sampler Tri-County campaign fundraiser will be Thursday, October 8, at the Ruritan Club in Mathews. This will be your opportunity to support Congressman Rob Wittman for re-election. Rob has a challenger this go round : Qasim Rashim is a far-left liberal who is the antithesis of Rob Wittman when it comes to issues confronting this country. The Green New Deal? Federal Aid to eliminate student loan debt? Health care is a human right? These are positions Rashim is campaigning for and what Rob and all of us oppose. Mark your calendars now and plan to attend; additional details will arrive by email to you.

Congressman Rob Wittman

The photo, right, of Congressman Wittman was taken during an informal Meet & Greet at 1st District GOP Headquarters in Gloucester, August 28. Rob showed great concern while answering questions from constituents. The above expression was in response to concerns expressed about the U.S. Postal Service. He assured his audience the USPS isn't looking for funding at this time, but wants to do whatever is necessary—including postponing planned equipment updates—to ensure 2020 Election ballots and the election process, itself, are not compromised due to inefficiencies of the postal department.

And more!

Is it possible to understand...the incredible hypocrisy of the Democrats who continually project onto President Trump and conservative Republicans exactly what it is their party is doing to this country? This hypocrisy is abundantly evident not only in the news media, but in Letters to the Editor in our local newspapers. When did the President and all of us come out against law and order? How is it even remotely possible that we are the ones responsible for the violence, rioting and destruction in this country's cities (all of which are run by Democrat mayors and/or governors)? Trump holding the Bible upside down? At least he's holding a Bible, contrary to the Democrats who want to extinguish God completely! And, how can we forget how racist we are? We are accused of dividing this country, causing an us-versus- them mentality. Really? Why don't these people look in their mirrors? Obviously, they are too fearful to do so—afraid the Truth will shine light on the evil they are perpetrating on the free people of America and the freedoms they are working hard to destroy. Our challenge is to keep up the good fight, to not lose faith and hope, and remember that our God is Sovereign.

Pat Dunnington and Trudy Feigum

Who are these women? Pat Dunnington and Trudy Feigum have been working on behalf of the Gloucester and Middlesex County Republican committees over the last several years. Fact is, we haven't stopped! Pat is immediate past chairman of the Gloucester committee and served as an Alternate National Delegate this year. Pat also is the woman in charge of 1st District GOP Headquarters in Gloucester—she's likely the face you'll see when you visit. Trudy is immediate past chairman of the Middlesex committee and served as National Delegate. She's now MCRC Membership Chairman and continues as newsletter editor.

(I'm taking this opportunity to give a shout out to Pat with my gratitude for all she's done and continues to do.) When you see her, please thank her!
